Silver City, Deming and Pacific 11330 E. Concho Circle 85749

The Silver City, Deming, and Pacific, nick-named The Hummingbird Line, is a newly started garden layout. While the real SCD&P was sold to the Sante Fe in 1888, this layout presumes the railroad remained independent in 1950 as a narrow gauge line serving Silver City, Pinos Altos, and Santa Rita with connections to the outside world, off layout, at Deming. Logging, a sawmill, and copper ore make up the out-bound traffic. In the era before interstate highways, everything had to be shipped by rail, so the inbound traffic ranges from fruit-and-vegetables (in an iced car) to machinery for the mine. This is an opportunity to see the parts of a garden layout during construction, as well as talk about model rail operations.

From the corner of Houghton and Tanque Verde, take Tanque Verde 1.5 miles east to Conestoga. Turn left and take the third street on the left, Concho Cir. The house is the second on the left. 11330 E Concho Cir can also be located by Google Maps.

Catalina and Rincon Saddle Railroad 12440 E. Ave de la Vista Verde 85749

The Catalina and Rincon Saddle (CRS) Railroad is generally themed in the early steam era and conforms with the AWNUTS concept (Always Whimsical Not Usually To Scale). Conceived and constructed over 20 years ago it fulfills a long term dream of getting back into model railroading.

While most garden railroads are planned around open space with few constraints, the CRSRR is an example of creating a railroad around established landscaping. Approximately 350 feet of track meanders around the outer edges of the yard and can be operated as two independent loops, two independent ‘doggone’ configurations or one single long ‘dogbone’. All trains are battery powered.

The layout will feature a “seek and find” for the "kid" in all of our visitors. We are a little ways out east but worth the effort.
